Young People's Excursion.

The Young People's Union of the Church of the Reformation held their regular meeting at the residence of Mr. Theo. Wetzel, No. 418 D street northeast, last evening. There was a large attendance of members and visitors present. The programme consisted of instrumental music, solos, duets, etc. The young people have decided to take a trip down the river on the 17th of the month. As it is not their intention to make anything by giving a regular excursion they will go on one of the regular trip boats, leaving the wharf about 10 o'clock.

An Odd Will. An Odd Will.

An eccentric old gentleman who recently died in Tyler, Texas, left a sum of money to be divided among persons now living in the South whose birth was coincident with his own—May 9, 1835. If every person who is entitled to a share puts in a claim there will not be much for each one. There are in the United States at least 400,000 persons who were born in the United States in the year 1550, and of those the number in the Southern States would be about in the Southern States would be abou 150,000. Assuming that the 9th of May of that year was an average one for births: there are now living in the United States 1,100 persons who were bern on that day, and 400 of them are residents of the South.
